Norfolk won and kept at the top, but the Colts will get there if they keep up the stride of the past few days.

Guess this Richmond club hasn't solue record for the last five games Here it is: At but 186 times; runs, 76 hits, 67; making a batting average for the team of .366.

If this isn't a record for any lea for the same number of games, t the books are wrong.

Another record in that game yesterday: Truck Egan and Jiminie Sul-livan each stole a base.

McCabe was the only one of the crowd on top of the batting list who falled to land for more than one

Shaughnessy needs about two ball players. With a couple of good in-fielders he will be a contender and don't forget it.

Roanoke made eight hits, but not a single run was the direct result of a

In the seventh Holland, the first man up for the visitors, cracked out a beau-tiful double, but he got no further than third base.

Pritchard helped his batting average by getting three safe swats in that number of tries.

Wallace and Sullivan hit safe every time they faced the pitcher.

Egan's triple could have been stretched to a homer by a fast man rather by a man faster than Truck, for he was tearing around the bases at a lively clip blioself.

Let's do it again today. A game is a game, and we can win easier now than when the other teams begin to get nearly in our class.

Did you ever hear such a well as is coming up from the Tidewater bandits? Danville wants some ball players and expects to land a few in Norfolk, which is perfectly justifiable, it the players want to get into faster company.

So far as haseball is concerned there is no such thing as the Tidewater, longue. They have outlawed themselves, and as such will have to stand the consequences.

Billy Hannon, after Mollineux had worked three games for the Norfolk outlaws, wired John Carter, secretary of the Danville club, wanting to know whether Mollineux was under contract to Danville. Billy knew that a pitcher working in Danville was under contract, and why did he wait until after he had worked three games before finding out?

You Tidewater gents, get this in your head. There is no war. The Virginia League is the only organization in this State which is playing baseball under proper protection, and as such is the one and only legal baseball organization in the State New fight out your own destiny. You decided the lines along which you would act, so act.
